Sir

In reply to your letter of the tenth of November last to the Syndics of the University Press proposing to them that they should print at Paris the lectures of Professor Downes on the oration of Lysias against Cratosthenes I have the honour to inform you that they do not engage in such undertakings and that they have no power to accede to your proposal.

I have the honour to be Sir
Your most obedient humble servant

J. W. Cookson

Vicechancellor.

To M. Boissonade

Paris.
